Coach Mark Dalzell has been with the IMG Bollettieri Tennis Academy for more than 25 years. He has trained Jim Courier, Mary Pierce, Jimmy Arias, Tommy Haas, Jelena Jankovic, Anna Kournikova and many more top professionals and juniors.

Dalzell grew up in Canada and was highly ranked for much of his junior career. Although he played college football at St. Francis Xavier University in Nova Scotia, he eventually found his way back to tennis. His football mentality, however, helped define his coaching style: "I am a disciplinarian out on the court. I am highly motivated and intense and love to see the athlete improve on any level."
