

Miguel Rosa

A native of Brazil, Miguel Rosa was once a top-ranked junior there before entering the college circuit where he had a successful career at the Division I level. In 2009, he was named to the Colonial Athletic Association's Silver Anniversary team for his outstanding play at Old Dominion. Rosa finished his playing career ranked No. 45 in the country.

In 2006, Rosa joined IMG Academies to head its adult tennis program. Today he serves as the IMG Bollettieri Tennis Academy's Business Manager, where he oversees the day-to-day operations of the full-time tennis program, which enrolls nearly 250 student-athletes from 80 countries, as well as the summer program, which draws thousands of athletes of all ages and abilities each year.
